

TEACHER OF HISTORY

1.0 Permanent FTE required from September 2024

Possibility of a TLR for the right candidate

Closing date: Friday 10th May 2024

Interview date: week commencing 13th May 2024

We would welcome part-time and flexible working applications

We are looking for a talented teacher to join our Humanities team. Applicants must have excellent subject knowledge and an understanding of the requirements of History at GCSE and A-Level.

'Staff are enthusiastic about working at the school. They are also very positive about leaders' attention to their well-being. Leaders are considerate of staff workload.' – Ofsted report 2022

We can offer you:

- A very well-resourced and organised department that is committed to co-planning using educational research.
- A school which has a comprehensive CPD programme which nurtures the strengths of all teachers and focuses on coaching and co-planning to develop teaching practice.
- The opportunity to teach up to A-level for our sixth form cohort.
- A supportive and strong team, which recognises the importance of staff wellbeing
- A school that has a specialist support centre for students with physical and sensory needs.
- A school with good transport links.

We are looking for:

- An ambitious teacher who is committed to securing high standards of learning and teaching across the three key stages.
- A motivated professional who is committed to learning new skills and willing to collaborate with others in the department and across the school to improve their own teaching.
- An evidence-informed practitioner who is confident with planning, assessment, intervention and data tracking to work within the department and school's performance goals
- A reflective teacher who adapts their lessons to suit specific students and give them the best learning experience possible.
- Someone who has outstanding interpersonal skills and a strong classroom presence to maintain a positive learning environment.
- Someone who is enthusiastic about increasing student participation in History education as well as committed to leading extra-curricular activities.
- Someone committed to high expectations, ensuring outcomes lead to outstanding attainment for all through explicit and deliberate teaching of knowledge and skills.
- Someone who has high aspirations and who is driven to succeed.
