CAN YOU TELL THE DIFFERENCE
BETWEEN A WREN AND A HOUSE SPARROW?

Congratulations to Lily-Louise Vineer, Year 10, who has won the Library Spring Term Treasure Hunt. She correctly identified all ten garden birds in the pictures hidden around the Library.

CAREER OF THE WEEK

Photographer

Photographers take and process pictures of people, places, products and events.

You can get into this job through:

- University
- College
- An apprenticeship

Day to day tasks

Day to day, you could:

- discuss a project with the client and agree the 'brief'
- find and prepare locations for the photo session
- set up equipment and lighting, and take photographs
- edit and process images, using industry software
- check colour match accuracy and image quality
- select the best images for the client to use online or in print

UNIVERSITY

You could do a foundation degree, higher national diploma or degree in:

- photography
- visual arts
- commercial photography
- art and design

COLLEGE

You could take a college course in photography. This might help you to find a job as a photographer's assistant in a studio.

APPRENTICESHIP

You could apply to do an apprenticeship to get into this role, for example, a Photographer Level 4 Higher Apprenticeship.

This apprenticeship takes around 1 year and 6 months to complete, and is a mix of training in the workplace and off-the-job study.

Career Progression

Many photographers are freelance and you could do a mix of contract work and following your own interests.

You could extend your range into other areas of photography like product, property, aerial or corporate work.

Specialist photographers

- press or police photographer
- photographer in the armed forces
- medical photography
- illustration
- bridal

Starting your own business

You could increase your income by selling your images independently.

WORLD BOOK DAY

6 MARCH 2025

Before half term your tutor will have handed out tokens.

These can be spent in local bookshops and participating supermarkets from Thursday 13th February to Sunday 23rd March.

You can get £1 off any book, or you can exchange your token for one of the special £1 books.

You can swap your token for one of these special books in our School Library on World Book Day, Thursday 6th March.

Watch this space for news of other in-school World Book Day activities and competitions!
