

Teacher of Science

The ability to teach A Level Chemistry would be an advantage (but not a necessity)

Required from September 2022

TMS/UPS - 1.0 FTE

Closing date: 9am – 10th June 2022

Interviews: week commencing 13th June 2022

Are you the outstanding teacher that we are looking for to join our thriving team?

Are you passionate about the teaching students receive?

Are you committed to teaching high quality general science lessons at KS3 & KS4?

If so then come and join us at The Angmering School.

We are looking for:

- An enthusiastic and talented teacher who is committed to delivering effective learning to all students.
- A teacher who is able to work collaboratively within the team to develop resources through co-planning and support our journey to becoming an outstanding department.
- Someone who can apply the principles of academic research to their practice, and share best practice to drive continual improvement.
- A teacher who is committed to developing student confidence and academic resilience.
- Someone who is committed to securing the best outcomes for all students.
- An inspiring teacher to join our team.

We can offer you:

- A role in a strong and successful team that is committed to developing practice through training and educational research.
- A comprehensive CPD programme which capitalises on the strengths of all teachers and focuses on coaching and co-planning to develop teaching practice.
- The opportunity to teach up to A Level to our Sixth Form cohort.
- A school that recognises the importance of staff wellbeing and supports work life balance.

Visits to the school prior to applications are actively encouraged – please contact Sarah Hemsley at shemsley@theangmeringschool.co.uk or on 01903 772351 to arrange a visit.
